Press Release: George Mason University's Art & Design Senior Students' Exhibition opens on May 8, 2023, at the Art & Design Building, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA under the title Kaleidoscope.

93 students graduating with bachelor's degrees in Art and Visual Technology present their final work in the Spring of 2023 Senior Art & Design Show at George Mason University's Gillespie Gallery of Art, Room 2044, Room 2047, Room 2049, L012, and in the Sculpture Garden in the Art & Design Building.

The exhibition opens Monday, May 8th, and the gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The exhibition will be on view through May 12th, with a closing reception on Saturday May 13th from 6- 8 p.m. Parking for attendees to the closing reception will be free in Lot A, located between the Patriot Center and across the street from the Art & Design Building.

The exhibition is free and open to the public. The use of masks is not required and remains optional. For more information, read University Policy 1415.

Over the past three months these students have worked on their capstone project. The exhibition showcases the result of these explorations in graphic design, animation, drawing, printmaking, photography, painting, and sculpture.
